Qualifications for number 8 above:

Cum Christo Guidelines Article II “Qualifications for Leadership Positions” as stated:

A. Candidates for Leadership and/or Weekend Team Positions

1. Cursillo/Cum Christo was founded as, and continues to be, a Roman Catholic sponsored spiritual movement in consultation with and responsible to the Catholic Bishop of Columbus, who has the final say on the viability of the movement. Therefore, while we sincerely welcome and encourage our Christian brothers and sisters of various mainline Protestant denominations to participate fully in the Movement, questions of theology and morality that arise in the selection of candidates for leadership and/or team membership positions must be resolved according to Catholic doctrine and the Catechism of the Catholic Church.
2. Any and all issue(s) related to leadership criteria for an individual shall be communicated confidentially to the Lay Director of the Cum Christo Movement who shall enlist the counsel of the Movement’s Spiritual Director and/or the Spiritual Director Team in exploring the issue(s) and making a determination.

Qualifications for number 9 above:

Cum Christo By-Laws Article II “Qualifications of Candidates for Cum Christo Leadership Positions” as stated:
