A Message in Spirituality

Spirituality in practice may be the best way to describe the contributions of two of the most active members of the Columbus Cum Christo movement who entered their fifth day earlier this year—Tsuneo Miqashira (Men’s 71st) and Father Tom Cadden (Men’s 105).

In addition to their contributions as spiritual leaders, both men demonstrated unparalleled strength, selflessness and kindness.

As a spiritual director for Cum Christo, Father Tom’s influence was far reaching. Tsuneo, on the other hand, touched many lives by serving on dozens of weekend teams (admittedly preferring Women’s weekends!) and being on hand for Ultreyas on as spiritual director.

The focus of Father Cadden’s ministries included the poor and vulnerable, the disenfranchised, and the lost and forsaken. He logged countless hours in soup kitchens, and shelters. He worked with immigrants, refugees and embraced those with AIDS. Father worked many Cum Christo teams and was in team formation for the Men’s 139th when he died in an automobile accident.

Both men suffered severely from various physical ailments, For Tsuneo, one of those medical problems led to him receiving a kidney from his sister in 1983. The procedure was performed to give him a “few more years” of life. As usual, Tsuneo pleasantly surprised everyone and stretched his time to twenty years.

Tsuneo was born in Hawaii February 8th, 1925. He served in the U.S. army from 1944 to 1946. He was ordained the United Church of Christ. His active pastorate was at Dublin Community Church. He and his beloved Ella are the parents of two sons and one daughter. His children and two grandsons were the joys of his life, along with his love for God, his church and Cum Christo.

Father Cadden was born April 24, 1930, in Chillicothe. He was ordained August 27, 1955. He served many parishes—the most recent of which was Our Lady of Victory in Columbus.

Planning Underway for Anniversary Party

This year is Columbus Cum Christo's 40th anniversary.

We are planning a homecoming celebration at the annual Ultreyafest in August.

Please contact your tables, tell your groups and plan to join the celebration fun. We'll have more details about this later.

If you would like to help plan this event, please contact Jenny Held at jennymheld@aol.com

Put Your Ideas to Work with "PUT"

Here's an idea for those of you itching to take a more active role in Columbus Cum Christo: Consider joining the Permanent Ultreya Team.

PUT, as its called, is on the outlook for new blood in an effort to provide a well-deserved hiatus to those current members who have been on the team for several years. PUT is the branch of Post Cum Christo assigned to lead the weekly Ultreyas. The team also organizes picnics and other special events, such as the annual Winter Banquet.

You are eligible to become a PUT member, as long as you have attended a Leaders School Weekend Orientation. Team members are asked for service for two years. So, if you have the drive, energy, a little time and some ideas, consider joining PUT to help in its continued success,

Becoming a member of PUT is not only rewarding, it allows you to assume a more active role with others at Cum Christo.

If you are interested in joining the Permanent Ultreya Team, please email PUT Coordinator, Jenny Held at Jennymheld@aol.com

Tired of Following, Try Leading

Leadership represents the strength of Cum Christo. And the need for strong, action-oriented leaders never ceases. If you think you have what it takes to step into a position of leadership in Cum Christo, attend the next Leaders School Weekend Orientation.

When: May 14th & 15th
Starts: Friday Evening: 7 pm to 10:30 pm
(Stay overnight if you wish)
Saturday: 7 am to 12:30 pm

During the orientation, you'll learn more about the Cum Christo Method and, at the same time, develop new friendships. Leaders School is must if your personal vision includes serving on future teams and in other Cum Christo leadership roles.

You will be welcomed at the orientation no matter if you made your Cum Christo weekend recently or several years ago.

For more information and to sign up for the next Leaders School weekend, call: Joe DiCesare (614-792-8030) or e-mail him at sukey806@aol.com. Or you can telephone the Cum Christo office, 614/GO4-CHRIST. Keep in mind an RSVP is required.

If the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch. (Matthew 15:14)
