From the Lay Directors

Elaine Beem W80, Sonny Beem M112

Teambeem is very proud of our affiliation with this Cum Christo Community and we are thoroughly enjoying our job as Lay Directors. One of our more serious responsibilities is ensuring the integrity of our movement.

We live in a new electronic age and some of us are old fashioned or technically challenged. Recently something happened which goes to show how good intentions can go awry when using today's technology. Sonny recently went south on a weekend retreat with his group and needed to let Elaine know he had arrived safely. One of his group mates said he could use his SMART PHONE to send Elaine a text message, something he had never done before. Unfortunately, he forgot Elaine's exact e-mail address and the e-mail ended up going to a lady in Rapid City, South Dakota who was the wife of a preacher who had just died the day before. The preacher's wife, also named Elaine, took one look at the message and immediately fainted. When she was finally revived by her daughter, Penny, she hysterically pointed to the message, which read "Hello Elaine. I arrived safely, but it sure is hot down here!"

While that is just a little humorous anecdote, it brings up a point that we want to remind the Community about. In our enthusiasm to tell others about the wonderful gift of Cum Christo, some people use a variety of methods of communication including e-mail, face book, texting, twittering, blogging, and so on. However, we must be very careful in how we spread the information concerning the Cum Christo Movement. The by-laws require that all communication to outside parties must be authorized by the lay directors. This includes web pages, blogs, FaceBook pages, etc. – anything that can be searched via internet; and this also includes printed material pamphlets, flyers, posters, and informational DVDs.

On the flip side, the electronic age does give us yet another method of making personal contact with potential candidates. Remember our motto "MAKE A FRIEND, BE A FRIEND, LEAD A FRIEND TO CHRIST". Sometimes the personal touch is what moves a person to accept the invitation to make a Weekend.

WEEKEND REMINDERS

Sponsors

Please remember your commitment to 'pre' and 'post' Cum Christo weekend clean-up.

Cleaning

For the Men's 149th will be Monday, March 7th and Monday, March 15th. The center will open at 5:30 pm with a chapel visit at 7:00 pm. Please note this change of time!!!!

Palanca

Are you or your group looking for some action? We are the hands and feet of Christ, Cursillistas are needed to clean the Cum Christo Center, work a meal if you are not a sponsor, write a letter for the team and/or candidates and share your palanca for the weekend. What can you do?

Sunday Serenade

Begins promptly at 6 am. Please do not bring children. For those interested, breakfast will follow the serenade at Bob Evans: 2199 Riverside Dr., Upper Arlington, OH, 614-481-3124.

Prayer Vigil List

The list is now being generated from the Cum Christo database. If you are interested in being on the Vigil List, please go to www.cumchristo.org and make the change on the website where it asks you to update your database information

If your name is on the Prayer Vigil List, be sure that you or a Cursillista of your choice covers the hour. If at all possible, fulfill your vigil at the Cum Christo Center's Chapel, which is open from 7:00 am to 10:00 pm. It is allowable for you to be in the Chapel even with the candidates present, except Saturday between 1:00 pm and 3:30 pm during Table Visits. If your name does not appear on the list below, you may still visit the Center to participate in the prayer vigil. Remember: Christ is counting on you!
