"...And I on Him"

A few short words . We have all uttered them in response. Like a lot of times in life, this short, monosyllabic, simple phrase is so powerful. The statement "I do" comes to mind or Jesus' response to those who sought Him for arrest in Gethsemane—"I am He" (John 18:5)

Sometimes words gain even more power by the circumstances in which they are spoken. This simple phrase has been repeated by thousands of believers on an altar of sacrifice amongst a community of friends.

Sometimes words gain power by the actions that accompany them. Our brief response gains even more power because as we speak them, we are given the gift of a cross—our cross, His cross. Jesus initiated the deal, but it is our signature (And I on Him) that completes it.

We have had occasion recently to ponder on the significance of this short phrase in our lives. We confess that perhaps we did not fully know that of which we spoke just a short 25 years ago. But we are glad we spoke them. Christ is counting on you.
