April 2007 Edition
Women's 136 Weekend Issue

From the Lay Directors

Rob and Bob Franz, W25, M36

Since the last Quiri, much has been happening in Cum Christo. The Long Range Planning Team has completed their work after two years of discussion and recommendations. They raised 15 issues, some which have been approved and many which now need to be addressed by the Secretariat and Leaders' School. For example, a Cum Christo Weekend brochure and Sponsor's brochure have been developed and published for your use. The Candidate Application has been revised to allow women to make the Weekend before their husbands.

The LRPT issues tie into the Leaders' survey published in the January 2007 Quiri, which helped establish our vision and goals, such as developing the Spirituality and Life of the Movement through Education, Leadership, and our Traditions.

As these develop we will keep you abreast of the Secretariat's decisions on these issues in future publications of the Quiri.

But from our perspective, it all boils down to one thing: Cum Christo needs you to sponsor more candidates for the Weekends. We suspect that because wives can now make a Weekend before their husbands, there are fewer men disposed to make the Weekend. That means a more concerted effort on all of our parts is necessary. Cum Christo needs you to bring candidates to Jesus Christ so they can build a deeper relationship with Him and become leaders in their fourth day as you are. So, make a friend, be a friend, bring a friend to Christ. You can make a difference.

The April Women's Weekends is fast approaching. Pray, study and act. Do you have a "Spiritual Bouquet" to offer the team and candidates?! Christ is counting on you. Be a loving Sponsor. Give your Love away. The Love will come back to you a hundred fold. His name is Jesus!

Your sister and brother in Christ,

The mission of Cum Christo is to bring Christians together in an ecumenical environment that renews their relationship with Jesus Christ and motivates them to grow as disciples of Jesus in their churches, their everyday life and other places where God leads them.

Deadline for the next Quiri printing is Sunday, June 3, 2007. Articles for the Quiri may be emailed to sbe@columbus.rr.com or mailed to Stacey Bergmann, c/o CumChristo Center, P.O. Box, 163712, Columbus, OH 43216.

Accountability

Deacon Tony Bonacci, M90

Dear friends, it has been said, "Living the Christian life is not difficult, it's impossible!" No man or woman has the strength of will and purpose to always make the right choices. Have you built accountability into your Christian lifestyle? In our world, consumerism (the idea that progressively greater consumption of goods is beneficial) and secular humanism (the idea that man establishes his own moral values apart from the influence of anyone, including God) are all around us. How, then, are we to progress as Christians?

The answer is accountability. We need to hold each other accountable, that is, to be regularly answerable for each of the key areas of our life to someone we love and trust. Have you ever asked someone to hold you accountable for an area of your life? Has anyone ever asked you to hold him or her accountable for an area of their life? It's not such a radical idea! For us as Christians, the purpose of accountability is to each day become more Christ-like in all our ways, and to strive to be more intimate with Him. That's what being a Christian is all about...

We all need help to stay on track: in our relationships with God, our spouse, and our children; in our use of money and time; in our moral and ethical behavior; and in areas of personal struggle. We need regular contact with an "accountability partner," someone who can be our spiritual "confidant."

Why be interested in our accountability here and now? Because of our eventual accountability there. Each of us is accountable to God for every aspect of our lives. ("So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God." Romans 14:12) Think about it... Who can you trust to hold you accountable in your life? Blessings to you and yours.

Service

Sonny Beem, M112

The Cum Christo Center has always held a special place in my heart. Many updates and improvements have taken place in the Center since I made my weekend in the fall of 1991. We are taught on our weekends to group and to go back into our environments and to work for God. Somehow, I have stayed at the Cum Christo Center, making it my main environment.

Over the years, many people have volunteered their time, talent or treasures to help with the many projects of updating and refreshing this wonderful building. Today, we can sit back and see what can be done to keep the center at this level or to brainstorm what future projects can be accomplished.

In the past years many eating utensils in the kitchen have been lost, damaged or broken. We are asking that if anyone has clean used cutlery, pots, pans or serving dishes to contact Sonny Beem at the Cum Christo Center to make arrangements to get these items. If you want, you can also make a cash donation for items to be purchased

A few years ago a man named John P., who dearly loved and tended to this building, passed on to his fifth day. After his passing, I sort of fell into his non-official position, and I have gathered information about many things that are needed to run the building. These include mechanical operations as well as what needs to be done or who needs to be called before our weekends. When I show people around the building to understand how to work the mechanical operations, they laugh when I show them the "nail" that is critical to the operation of the boiler, or the "flowers" in the urinals for a women's weekend.

There are many other details I have kept in my brain. I would like to find someone who could walk through the building with me, take notes, and put some vital building information together. My goal is to create a service journal and perhaps a video that would show how to service the building.

So, I beg of someone or a group to please help me take my knowledge of the building and put it onto paper and possibly a computer. In closing I leave you with one of my original sayings: "ASK NOT WHAT CUM CHRISTO CAN DO FOR YOU, RATHER WHAT CAN YOU DO FOR CUM CHRISTO".

Leader School

Jim Kearns, M111

You can make an old dog learn new tricks. I'm that example. I made my weekend 16 years ago. I didn't attend Weekend Orientation until 1996. I tell you this because it is never too late to get into something new. Join fellow babe chicks, roosters, and cluck hens for an informative and FUN time in the Cum Christo Center on May 11 and May 12. Weekend Orientation lays out the history, psychology, and theology of the Cum Christo weekend. Come meet other Cursillistas in a relaxed atmosphere spending time in that old holy building. It is a Friday evening and a Saturday Morning with talks, prayer, and plenty of sharing, questions and answers. NO POSTERS. If you have made this orientation in the past and would like a refresher, come join us again.

Weekend Orientation has a registration link on the web site. The alternate registration is through Elaine Beem at elaineandsonny@hotmail.com or 614-459-5717.

If you have any questions about Leader School, visit the web site, find the list of its members, and feel free to contact any one of them. You can always call Jim Kearns at 614-263-6410 or send an email to ritajim@wideopenwest.com.

Last Call, Save Cum Christo Additional Postage!

Stacey Bergmann, W126

This is my third request via the Quiri for database updates. To date we have received 287 out of 2700. Each month, I am still receiving Quiri's back from the post office.

Next, we will be mailing database change forms to each household in the system who have not completed the form online or via mail. Save Cum Christo postage!!

We need to know what church you are currently attending and a phone number for our church contacts when coordinating local events.

We also need more names for the Weekend Prayer Vigil

Lists. We are only going to generate these names with a little prayer and the computer. Complete the form above or update your database information at www.cumchristo.org.

Please pray for the following individuals, their families, and friends.

Dear Community,

Since the last printing of songbooks for use at the CumChristo Center, the majority have wondered off to where the team and participants of the last men's weekend had to share.

Please, if you find that you have a CumChristo songbook in your possession (no matter how justified) please return it to the Center prior to the upcoming women's weekend (April 19-22). Yes, more songbooks can and will be ordered but cannot be received in time for the next weekend. Please help! Thanks and God Bless!

FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED AND THEIR LOVED ONES - Gracious and loving God, please touch the grieving hearts of the families and give them your peace. Barbara, Chuck, Pam, Lucille, Father Charlie Cotton's mother, Joanne Durbin, John Werner, Patricia Craft, mother of Tom Craft, M61 (3/24/2007), and Keith.

FOR THOSE SUFFERING WITH CANCER - Franz Harris, Andrew, Steve Zurnehly, Liz Noe, Sharon, Pam, Gary, Johnny, Kathy, Chuch Seely, Josh, the father of Jenny Moore, Joan, and Grace.
