The mission of Cum Christo is to bring Christians together in an ecumenical environment that renews their relationship with Jesus Christ and motivates them to grow as disciples of Jesus in their churches, their everyday life and other places where God leads them.

We need to bring you up to date on the many things that are happening in Cum Christo. First, the July 19 Homeless Project, under the direction of Sue Shetler and Jenny Held, was a huge success with many donations and fifty-four volunteers that Saturday to help distribute the goods to the Homeless Shelter at West Broad and Grubb Streets. A sincere thanks to all of you who gave of your time, treasure and talent. It was impressive and awesome!

The Leader Discernment Team is fully functioning as described in this issue by Team Leader, Jerry Abraham. The LDT will help Cum Christo not only discern new Leaders, but identify where best to place Leaders given their unique perspective of the whole of Cum Christo and our needs.

New Section Leaders, who have been discerned by the LDT and who have accepted are as follows:

- Weekend: Nancy Ryan who replaces Nancy Meyer
- Post-Cum Christo: Richard Gehman who replaces Mary Tracy
- Leaders' School Team Leader: is in process - will replace Jim Kearns
- Kitchen Team Leaders: Colleen and Brian Barta who replace Linda and Skip Murray
- Applications Processor: JoAnn Hohman who replaces Nancy Ryan
- Sustaining Fund Development: Lynn McCready who replaces JoAnn Hohman

Please pause and say a prayer of thanksgiving and praise for those who have completed two years of service and for those who have committed their services to Cum Christo for the next two years.

It is obvious that the Leader Discernment Team has done a tremendous job in helping the Lay Directors identify and discern new leaders, and we are very grateful.

Next, you may recall that last February we filed with the Diocese of Columbus for inclusion in the United States Catholic Conference Group Ruling which, if accepted, would have made Cum Christo a charitable, tax-exempt organization within the Columbus Diocese and, therefore, with the IRS. That application was denied last May which lead us to apply to the State and the IRS for tax-exempt status as a charitable organization.

As of June 18, 2008, Cum Christo became incorporated when Articles of Incorporation were filed with the Secretary of State. Cum Christo is now a tax-exempt, charitable organization in the State of Ohio with our own tax identification number (cont. on page 3)

The Task at Hand

Our task with spiritual growth is not merely to get “holy,” not merely to think holy thoughts so that we can experience the presence of the Holy Spirit, but to “exercise ourselves into godliness.” Our task is to remove the self-imposed blocks or character defects that stand between God and us. We do this so we can be awakened, meet God personally with our own true selves, and do his will. To wake up and get at this task was also the purpose of the saints in their spiritual disciplines. (A Hunger for Healing by Keith Miller p. 6)

I have been interested for some time in “Twelve Step” spirituality based on the twelve steps of Alcoholics Anonymous. These steps have been helpful for many who seek recovery from alcohol and drug addiction. The principles of these programs seem to embody eternal truths about the spiritual life.

Keith Miller applied the twelve steps to the Christian life in his book, A Hunger for Healing: The Twelve Steps as a Classic Model for Christian Spiritual Growth (San Francisco: Harper San Francisco, 1993). Miller became well known as a Christian writer in 1965 with the publication of A Taste of New Wine. Since that time, he has been a successful Christian leader, businessman, writer, and lecturer.

However, he makes clear in his book that he was a “control freak” who operated out of a deep fear of not being accepted and of financial insecurity. He was a second son who never felt that he could live up to the expectations of his father, and his experience of the great depression led him to anxiety about his financial situation no matter how successful he became.

Miller found help in the twelve steps which called him to growth through humility and powerlessness. These principles are embodied in the first three steps. Step one is to admit that we are powerless over our addictions and that our lives have become unmanageable. Step two is to come to believe that a power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity. Step three is to decide to turn our will and our lives over to God as we understood him. A friend of mine has summarized the first three steps as follows: “I can’t. God can. I think I’ll let him!”

Miller’s understanding of the twelve steps is that they help us remove stumbling blocks to our “waking up” and becoming the people God created us to be. This is our task whenever we engage in spiritual disciplines of any kind. We surrender to a loving God who knows us and has given us gifts for service to others. God frees us to give those gifts away.

It seems to me that Cum Christo does just this. Through piety and study, we submit our very lives to God who came to us in Jesus Christ and empowers us to take action. While we may not be in a twelve step program, we can know the power of turning our lives over to God and seeking to do God’s will wherever we find ourselves and in whatever circumstances. This is the task at hand each and every day.

DISCERNMENT

“What do you want of me, Lord?” We, as Cursillistas, want to know, and have piety as part of our daily lives to try to listen to the Holy Spirit to guide our actions and thoughts. The prayer we use to open our grouping sessions starts with “Come, Holy Spirit”. This listening to the Holy Spirit is discernment.

In Cum Christo management we also ask for guidance to discern our journey. Part of this course is discerning rectors. On August 23, the 2009 rectors and assistant rectors attended Rector School, and were given their manuals and handbooks. In July, the 2010 rectors were discerned. I ask you to pray for these men and women as they undertake a huge responsibility. The 2009 rectors and assistant rectors are: Jerry Judge & Dan Hill, Donna Shea & Deb Hill, Tom Craft & Bob Bruce, Nancy Meyer & Tami Robbins As of this writing the 2010 rectors had not yet accepted their positions. They were praying about it.

We are now in the process of applying to the IRS for our federal tax-exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code. To do this we need to re-write our By-Laws to meet IRS requirements which include additions of legal paragraphs, clarifications and language.

All of this caused us to ask important questions and provide more exact answers to the IRS as to who we are, what our purpose is, what our organizational structure is, etc.. In order to accomplish this huge task we first organized a legal team consisting of two Cum Christo legal experts, Frank Martens and Jeff Glasgow who offered their services gratis, our Treasurer, Mike Chambers and the lay director. A first draft of the revised By-Laws with the legal inclusions and clarifying statements answering the above questions was written and then sent out to a By-Laws Committee consisting of eight other current leaders in the Cum Christo Movement, four from Secretariat and four from Leaders' School. Several revisions followed which included the committee's suggestions.

The legal team met to develop a final draft on July 29, 2008, which was immediately sent out to the By-Laws Committee for final approval. As of this writing, August 1, 2008, we are waiting for feedback from the Committee members. In all, twelve Cum Christo Leaders have had the opportunity for input into the revisions. We will present the By-Law revisions to the Secretariat for the first reading at the next Secretariat meeting, August 5, 2008. By the September Secretariat meeting we hope to have the By-Laws approved and then sent in to the IRS in order to have IRS approval and incorporation inclusive of the year 2008.

We are very hopeful that these revisions in the Cum Christo By-Laws, done prayerfully and in consultation for the betterment of the Cum Christo Movement will be permanent and place Cum Christo in good stead for many years to come. The next step after IRS approval will be to fine-tune the By-Laws and to re-write the Guidelines to match them. If you are interested in reading a copy of the revised By-Laws, please e-mail your request to: franzb.1@netzero.net.

Weekend Section

Nancy Meyer, W27

The Cum Christo community has had a busy Spring with two wonderful weekends. Now we are gearing up for our Fall weekends which are coming along very well. Team formation for the Men's 147th begins July 29, and the Women's 139th will begin to meet August 21. Input meetings for both weekends are scheduled for August 5. Closing churches are St. Christopher for the men and St. Andrew's for the women.

Rector Discernment for 2010 will happen on July 28, and Rector's School is all set to go on August 23.

I am wrapping up changes to the Rector Handbook and Rector's Script which will be distributed to 2009 Rectors and Assistants at Rector's School.

As my term draws to a close, I am looking forward to working with Nancy Ryan as she prepares to take over in October. A detailed report of all 2008 weekends will appear in the first issue of the Quiri in the Fall. Thanks to all the saints who help me continue to keep this busy position so successful!

As you know, much goes into a weekend. Deciding the who's of each weekend, whether it be rector, spiritual director, guardian angel, or musician, is the work of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit decided the rectors, will assist the new choice of assistant rectors, and will assist the rector teams in their choices of spiritual directors and team members. These decisions of the Holy Spirit are made known to us when we listen on our knees.

Other decisions have to be made. The Holy Spirit may be reaching out to you. Please discern candidates for the upcoming weekends. Please discern what palanca you will perform in your daily lives. Please discern how you will support these weekends. "Come, Holy Spirit."

Post Cum Christo

Mary Tracy W92

If anyone ever had any doubts as to the power and presence of the Holy Spirit, all they had to do was come down to the center on Saturday, July 19th and witness God's grace in action. Sixty plus volunteers met, prayed, packaged and delivered much needed items to the Homeless Families Foundation on Broad Street. The outpouring of support from our Cum Christo family through donations and time affected the many lives of those most in need.

We are a community of believers and when we share our love of Jesus with others through our piety, study and action we act as disciples of Christ which is what he called us to do. Our community is blessed to be able to gather often and regularly at Ultreya (every Wednesday @7pm) to recharge our collective batteries through prayer, song, flying group, Scripture and personal witness. Ultreya, along with our regular weekly group reunion, is a wonderful way to reconnect and strengthen our resolve to go out into our environments and bring about change.

Ultreyas are a team effort. Volunteers are always needed and very much welcomed to work a variety of jobs. None are life-threatening and a lot of fun is had by all. We meet for formation the month prior to the month you signed up to work. This is a special time where we pray, share our close moments with Christ, and discern what tasks we will take on. Working an Ultreya team is a gift to others not to mention the gifts we receive for our efforts.

PUT (Permanent Ultreya Team) welcomes anyone who has completed Leader School Orientation and who would like to be more involved in the planning of Ultreyas. Members choose a month to work and guide the volunteers (who have signed the "big board") through the process.

There are many opportunities throughout the year to share your time and talent with others – please check the website (www.CumChristo.org), Quiri and weekly Ultreya for information about upcoming events. If you have any questions.....or comments, please contact me: MaryBrigid@sbcglobal.net

As always, please pray for this community, especially those in leadership as they work to serve God. Let us go forth and make a friend, be a friend and bring a friend to Christ.

What are close moments? They are times when we have the unmistakable sense that our Lord is present and active in our lives a time when we are touched by the presence of Christ. Close moments (cont. on p 6)

Music Ministry

Tami Robbins, W100

I remember as a kid, my mother (having been raised in the 50's), felt compelled to "fall clean" every year. She "spring cleaned" also, but we'll save that for another article. This cleaning involved everything including the kitchen sink. We cleaned closets, painted, organized dresser drawers, shampooed carpets and furniture, and yes we even cleaned the garage and the basement. As a child, it was bad enough that school was fast approaching, let alone this big push to organize our "nest". However, as an adult I understand the need to take stock and organize.

Cum Christo's music ministry is pretty laid back in the summer months. We play at Ultreyas and DeColores Services when needed, but otherwise, we have a little time off to enjoy our families and friends doing summertime stuff! As we approach the fall weekends, it is time to organize and gear up, because BIG things are coming! We have been working to update our active musicians list. This way we will be more efficient when our rectors ask for names of musicians who may work weekends. It will also help us communicate with one another and keep us on track for Ultreyas, the Spiritual Directors Dinner, Yuletreyas and other such activities.

Frank has been working very hard on the new music books to have them ready for the fall weekends. Joe has been organizing the DeColores Service Packet. It is also my hope to have the written music for our closings, in place, so that other instruments may join us.

If you would like to be on our musicians list, and you would like to receive information, please e mail me at; robbinscastle@yahoo.com. Let me know what you play. Eventually, I truly hope to have all types of musicians at our closings and serenades. I hope that you are all having a blessed summer, and I look forward to seeing you in the fall!

Leader Discernment Team

Jerry Abraham, M138

Leader Discernment Team (LDT)! We are a new Team in our CumChristo Community. Thanks to the foresight of our Lay Directors – Bob and Rob Franz and the leadership of Sukey DiCesare, the LDT was formed to discern the future section leaders for Cum Christo Secretariat and Leader School and to make recommendations to the Lay Directors for final approval. The By-Laws and Operating Guidelines for the LDT can be found in the newly revised By-Laws. Current members who have committed to three year terms of service are: Jerry Abraham, Judy Unger, Judy Gibeaut, and Mark Pruse.

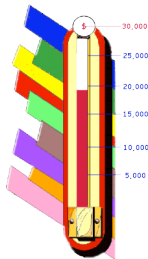

The LDT with the help of each of you will identify potential Cum Christo leaders who will accept the challenges of growing and strengthening the faith of our family. Leaders are a very important part of Cum Christo development and growth of our relationships with Jesus. We know that we each live the plan that God has designed for us. For many of us, the plans include taking active roles of leadership. When we are called to be Cum Christo leaders, we must do so with the knowledge of Cum Christo history and operations and with the enthusiasm to bring new ideas and activities to the community. Therefore, as part of their orientation, new leaders will be challenged to learn about their leadership responsibilities through the review of Cum Christo By-Laws and by the mentoring advice and guidance of the leaders they will be replacing. If you are being called to Cum Christo leadership or if you know others who might be interested, please let one of the LDT members know.

God is calling us; will we answer?

2008 Sustaining Fund Drive

JoAnn Homan W120

How blessed we are to have so many generous individuals supporting our movement. Since the first of the year we have received $22,655 in donations to the sustaining fund. $2220 of this amount was contributed in honor of someone or in memory of a loved one. While we have reached 75% of our goal for the year there is concern that our goal may be way too low given the rising costs of heating and cooling etc. I ask each of you to prayerfully consider a donation so that we can maintain the programs we offer and continue to support our outreach efforts. Your sister in Christ

Joe DiCesare, M60

When an article was requested from me for the Quiri, I was hard put to report any news about the building. Then I thought, “what if that old structure could report to us what it has seen and heard over all the years?” “ Think of all the thousands of hungry people who received nourishment through the efforts of our co-habitant, Saint Vincent De Paul Society. It has probably heard many whispered thanks as a sandwich was being consumed.

Does the building smile as it remembers all the thirsty hearts and souls who drank their fill of God’ love at weekends or ultreyas or reunions? Does it feel renewed or refreshed every time it receives a donation of tile or carpet or ceilings or windows or hundreds of other amenities? I am told in its history many different endeavors occurred in it’s friendly confines The Catholic Times newspaper was once published there and my wife swears she was confirmed there.

If you know any history or stories about the property please share them with me at my address jld3@dicesareco.com . Our building may look old, tired, and poor next to her recent modern neighbors but it is very rich and vital because of all the stories it could tell.

2008 Sustaining Fund Drive Donations:

Treasurer Michael Chambers, M137

As JoAnn reported in her article, the 2008 Sustaining Fund Drive that supports Cum Christo is moving toward completion. Many of you have been generous with your contributions; however we remain well short of satisfying our goals and needs. Please take a moment to reflect on your weekend and send us a check to bless the ongoing work of Cum Christo. Send $10.00, $20.00, $50.00, $100.00, whatever you are moved to do and help us to sustain our movement.

Letter To the Cum Christo Community:

THANK YOU!

Thank you for all your support for the Christmas in July Homeless Families Foundation ACTION project.

Karie, the on-site Director at the Homeless Families Foundation, reported They were OVERWHELMED when they went into their offices on Monday morning to see over 90 "starter kits" for the families...bags covering the floor of the community room and the storage room...to see boxes of diapers and school supplies and sets of dishes with silverware...and pots and pans...and cleaning supplies...to receive a $500 cash donation...and nearly $300 in grocery store shopping cards...250 fresh cookies from Cheryl's Cookies for their summer party for the children...and so much more!

Thank you to each one of you for stepping up and offering your prayers and so many generous donations of items and cash and checks for families in a tough situation.

Thank you to the volunteers who stuffed OVER 90 bags of items...dish soap, cleaning supplies, socks, scarves, dish cloths, dish towels, twin sheets, bath towels, fresh-new pillows, razors, shave cream, shampoo, bars of soap, first-aid kits, body lotion, toothpaste, toothbrushes, combs/brushes, kleenex.

At 9:20am on Saturday morning, July 19th, 57 volunteers lined up to fill the 90 "starter kits" and load cars and trucks with our precious gifts...boxes and bags of donated items.

By 10:00am, fourteen cars and trucks, filled to the brim, were loaded up and on their way to the Homeless Families Foundation on West Broad Street.

We "blew their socks off"!!! They've never seen anything like it.

Rod, the property manager-on-duty on Saturday said, "Everyone that delivered these items was so happy. They were all smiling...even tho' the temperature was over 90 degrees...they unloaded the items with such joy. And the cars and trucks just kept coming and coming!"

Doing the Lord's work does make us smile...on the outside and on the inside!

Thank you to each and everyone who opened your heart to this ACTION project. We prayed hard that this was the right choice for our Christmas in July ACTION. And God blessed us with an overwhelming outpouring from this beautiful Cum Christo community.

Truly our prayers, our work, our donations, our choice of ACTION was with the Grace of God.

A...proud to be part of this community...sister in Christ Jesus remind us that we are not alone in this journey, that our Lord Jesus Christ is always by our side giving us the strength and courage to go on.

When we share close moments we are actually sharing the presence of God in our lives with others. Sometimes these moments are felt in the laughter of a child or an interaction with a friend, coworker, spouse or even a stranger. Sometimes a close moment comes when a prayer has been answered or a worry has been lifted. A close moment can come when we are on a quiet walk or in the middle of a busy day at work.

The Quiri is seeking short spiritual articles, original poems, oneliner's or short verses depicting "close moments with God." to publish in upcoming issues of the Quiri.
